The Holocaust Survivors' Friendship Association

The HSFA runs the Holocaust Exhibition and Learning Centre on the campus of the University of Huddersfield. Our mission is to inspire others to value human rights, freedom, and equality by exploring the darkest parts of modern history.

We tell the global history of the Holocaust through local stories from the North of England.

We do so by collecting, preserving, and exhibiting the memories of survivors and refugees who made a new life as members of local communities in the North. We:

- House a permanent exhibition on the campus of University of Huddersfield
- Hold a growing archive of survivor and refugee oral histories, photographs, records, and objects
- Deliver a programme of education and public learning activities both on and offline
- Promote and undertake academic research
- Offer support and friendship to the local community of survivors and refugees
